

3 Head of Horses for Sale

AT PUBLIC AUCTION AT SWINK'S BARN IN FARMINGTON, MO., ON AUGUST 19, 1916,

as follows:

- 1 Horse, 7 years old, a son of Rex Denmark; good driver and saddler.
- 1 mare, 2 years old, unbroke; granddaughter of Echo Bell.
- 1 Colt, 1 year old; a grandson of Echo Bell.

Farmers, here's a chance to buy fine horses at your own price.

SALE WILL TAKE PLACE AT 2 P. M.

ED YINGTON.

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

PRIMROSE

Vernell Holdman of Bonne Terre is here on a visit at the home of Morris Jones.

Willis Moon was a Bonne Terre visitor Monday.

Mrs. Alfred Cole and Mrs. Steve Cole and little son were guests at the home of Morris Jones Monday.

Jacob Matthey of near Melzo was in Bonne Terre last week.

Robert Jones, Adolph Meyer of Bonne Terre and Jake Murphy, Jr., of near Big River, have gone to Detroit, Mich., to seek employment. We wish the boys success.

Miss Annie Moon of Bonne Terre was a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Moon, Sunday.

Rev. R. G. Ramsey of Flat River filled his appointment at Coonville Sunday.

Charley Lawson was a Bonne Terre visitor Saturday night.

Willis Moon and family, Messrs. Lawton Crossman, Ellis Moon, Manuel, Moses, Herman and Harvey Lawson attended the basket dinner and services at Coonville Sunday.

Miss Nellie Moon was a guest of Miss Esther Rawson one evening last week.

Mr. Leubbers and son, Henry, of near DeSoto were Bonne Terre visitors one day last week.

Luther Rane of Bonne Terre and Charley Lawson attended B. Y. P. U. at Prospect Sunday night.

Hubert Douglas, Guy Jennings and Joe Henson of Bonne Terre attended the basket dinner at Coonville Sunday.

Miss Ethel Whittier of near Blackwell, who has been visiting here for some time, has returned home.

The rain that fell here last Monday night was certainly fine. It will help out late crops a great deal.

Thomas Rawson and family of near Prospect and Albert Rawson of Bonne Terre visited at the home of Wm. Rawson the latter part of last week.

There was a basket dinner and all-day services at Coonville last Sunday. Owing to the rainy morning there wasn't a very large crowd present.

At the noon hour the dinner was out under the beautiful grove above the school house. After dinner, services were held in the school house. The preaching was by Rev. R. G. Ramsey of Flat River and Rev. James Appleberry of near Valle Mines.

Henry Lawson was in Bonne Terre Sunday.

Albert and John Forshe of near Coonville school house SHRDLU CMF Coonville attended the basket dinner at the Coonville school house Sunday.

Morris Jones was in Bonne Terre one day last week.

PRETTY ROCK

Mrs. John Skinner of Carter's Mill is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Skinner of this place.

Miss Edith Marshall was visiting Miss Edith Lowe Sunday evening.

G. C. O'Bannon was visiting Ed Snider Saturday evening.

Wm. Clark was in Farmington Saturday.

PUBLIC SALE

August 25, 1916

At my Farm, one and one-half miles north of Libertyville

Will offer for sale to the highest bidder 130 head of Cattle, and some registered Saddle Horses, and Mules, Hogs and Sheep.

TERMS OF SALE: A credit of 6 months will be given, with approved security and interest from date at 6 per cent per annum. Discount of 2 per cent for cash.

Dinner on the Grounds. Everybody Invited.

This is a good chance for every farmer to get some good stock.

JUDGE TOM STRAUGHAN, Auctioneer.

Don't forget the date—AUGUST 25, 1916.

J. C. WILLIAMS.

ELVINS

Mrs. Chas. Deuton was called out of town Friday on account of the death of an aunt.

L. Labrott of Leadwood was an Elvins visitor Saturday night.

Bryan Cozcan, assistant cashier of the bank here, who has been suffering from a boil on his forehead, is feeling much better this week, as the boil is disappearing.

Mrs. L. Sylvester and daughter, Miss Helen, of Columbia, are the much-welcomed guests at the Hartshorn home here for a few days.

B. R. Whitehill spent the week-end a business visitor in St. Louis, selecting new furniture for his store.

Carr Hartshorn, Leroy Robertson, Frank Carr, Mrs. L. Sylvester and daughter, Helen, and Miss Luraine Carr motored to Caledonia Friday and spent the day with relatives and friends.

Sam Doss and wife, Don Cameron and wife spent Sunday here at the home of Mrs. M. A. Langdon.

Pat Kenner and Joe Downs, while motoring to St. Louis last week in the latter's car, happened to an accident before the trip was completed. The car was burned up. Lon Florence of Desloge happened to be coming from St. Louis and he motored them home.

The Langdon brick building, which is being erected on the old Riverside Hotel lot, is progressing nicely.

There will be a revival at the Christian Church, conducted by John H. LeGrand, soon.

B. L. Brown has begun serving meals in his new restaurant, the White Kitchen, in the Lavid brick. He has an inviting place, everything being neat and clean.

Fred Tucker, who has been in the hospital suffering from injuries received underground about a month ago, is reported greatly improved.

OAK GROVE

We are getting some rain at this writing.

Prof. E. S. Womack attended the picnic at Weingarten last Saturday.

Julia Gordon of this community was baptized on last Sunday.

Miss Jessie Bowling of Farmington is spending a few days around Oak Grove at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Counts of Flat River and Evert Kuhlman of Farmington spent Sunday and Sunday night with relatives around Oak Grove.

Chas. Coffman of Coffman, Mo., motored through this community last Saturday going to Farmington.

J. Alvie Wampler and daughters, Hazel and Beulah, attended prayer meeting at Chestnut Ridge last Sunday night.

Mrs. E. S. Womack and children of this community came home last Friday from a week's visit in Flat River.

Elva Hammors of Flat River spent a few days recently around Oak Grove.

Burle Gordon of Knob Lick spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Gordon, of this community.

Mrs. James Womack is improving at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harter and children, Emmett and Joseph, spent Tuesday night in Farmington.

Prof. and Mrs. E. S. Womack of this community spent Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Counts and family of near Salem.

Noah Wampler is on the sick list.

Miss Audrey Womack of Farmington spent a week recently with relatives around Oak Grove.

Mertie Cruse of this community is working in Flat River at this writing.

Misses Viola Harter, Beulah and Hazel Wampler and Messrs. Arvall, Burle and J. C. Harter of this community spent Tuesday night in Farmington.

Clarence Bowling of this community spent a few days recently with John Bowling and family of Farmington.

Samuel Gregory of this community was a Flat River visitor the first of this week.

Addie Smith of Farmington is spending a few weeks with relatives around Oak Grove.

Virginia Silvey went to Flat River last Wednesday to prepare for school.

MISTLETOE

Ed Crawford of Flat River was visiting home folks of this place Sunday.

John Mund was in Farmington Saturday.

Jess Chatman was visiting Ben Crawford Sunday evening.

Jim McKinney was visiting Ed Pirtle Sunday evening.

Thos. Crawford of Washitau was visiting Ben Crawford Sunday evening.

Pete Bayless of Knob Lick was visiting Jess Barnes Sunday.

James Barnes was in Farmington Saturday.

Rollo Crepps of Flat River was visiting home folks of this place Saturday and Sunday.

August Klob was a Farmington visitor Monday.

The ball given at John Barnes' Saturday night was a great success.

John Chatman was visiting his brother, Sid Chatman, Sunday evening.

Those attending singing at Brightstone Sunday night from Mistletoe were, Knowles and Firman Klob, Ben Crawford, John Mund, Bart Crepps and Tom Wells.

CROSS ROADS

A fine rain fell here Sunday, which was highly appreciated by all.

Miss Connie Wright went to Lutesville Friday to visit friends there.

Mrs. John Umfleet of Mine La Motte spent Friday with her mother, Mrs. Tucker.

Miss Clara Womack of near Womack, Mo., spent Thursday with her friend, Dora Lenz.

Those from here who were shopping in Fredericktown Thursday were Viola Kennon and father, Harry Leigh and James Tucker.

Dr. Barron was called to the home of Joseph Vessels Saturday to see his son, who is very ill.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Smith, last week, a boy.

Mrs. Arval Brown and little daughter, Vera, of Illinois are the guests of

YOU CANNOT AFFORD

TO BE WITHOUT

OUR EXPERT BUSINESS TRAINING

"THE KEY TO SUCCESS"

All our graduates get positions and HOLD them, BECAUSE our courses of instruction prepare our students for the active duties of business life.

Prepare to be an Expert Accountant, Stenographer, Private Secretary, or Teacher.

Ideal Location, Pleasant Surroundings, ATHLETICS, Literary Work, HIGH-GRADE Training.

Regular Session Begins Tuesday, September 5th.

WRITE TODAY FOR OUR FREE BOOKLET.

Ozark Business College

"Missouri's Progressive Commercial School"

Farmington,

Missouri.

Good Harness

Helps along your farm work. Our harness is home-made and hand-made. They are built to last and are no higher than the other kind. Call and see our big line of horse furnishings, robes, whips, etc.

AND
HORSE GOODS
Lueders Saddlery

Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Meredith, at this writing.

Several from here attended the basket dinner at Womack.

Harvey Meredith is reported to be on the sick list.

Anna Meredith returned home from Libertyville Sunday, after spending the past week with her sister, Mrs. Ernest Moore.

Misses Robbie and Mabel Barron and Anna Meredith spent Monday evening at the Lenz home.

AVON

Several nice showers of rain have recently fallen, in this locality, which were badly needed.

W. E. Coffey was an Avon visitor Saturday.

Misses Estella Gordon and Reva Boyd, accompanied by the former's brother, were guests at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Nicholas Rimbaugh, of Minnith Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rodgers and little son, Lester, spent from Wednesday until Saturday with relatives at Flat River.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Snyder and grandson, Snyder McKinney, visited with relatives near here from Friday until Saturday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barron and little daughter, Elizabeth, of New Church spent over Saturday night with Mrs. Barron's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith.

Mrs. T. E. Ellis was a caller in this community one day the past week.

The picnic which was given at Coffman last Saturday, was quite well attended, and a good time seemed to be enjoyed by all present.

Floyd Biri was an Avon caller last Friday.

John Lewis of Libertyville was a pleasant caller in this community one day last week.

Misses Alva and Golden Ward and Gertrude Horn of Desloge returned home Tuesday, after a week's stay with relatives near this place. They were accompanied home by the former's cousins, Misses Ethyl and Edith Rodgers, who will remain for a visit of a few days.

Mrs. G. V. Herman of near this place, who was taken to the St. John's

Hospital, St. Louis, for treatment, died last Thursday evening at 6 o'clock.

The body was brought down from the city Friday and interred in the Catholic cemetery at River Aux Vases Saturday at 10 a. m. She leaves to mourn her death, a husband, mother, three brothers, one sister, five daughters and two sons, and other relatives and friends. She will be greatly missed by all. We extend sympathy to the bereaved.

ROUTE 6

Misses Mamie and Nellie Eaves of Doe Run returned home Tuesday, after a week's visit with their uncle, William Watson, of this route.

There will be a singing at Wm. Watson's Saturday night. Everybody invited.

Miss Ella Pritchett of near Elvins is visiting relatives on this route this week.

Miss Ethel Jones and two brothers, Frank and Gilbert, of near Pleasant Union spent Sunday with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Pritchett, of this route.

Miss Ethel Jones of near Pleasant Union attended singing at Auchtee school house Sunday night.

Messrs. Crawford, Clark and Watson spent Monday evening grading the road near this route.

Joe Clark was a visitor at John Chatman's Sunday.

LIBERTYVILLE

J. F. Hicks has purchased property in Farmington and will move there as soon as he gets possession.

Miss Anieta Klein of Farmington is the guest of her friend, Miss Lucile Simpson, this week.

Rev. Sitton is conducting a series of meetings at the Methodist Church this week.

Mrs. VanSickle, who has been spending the summer in Fredericktown, has returned to her home here.

Miss Mildred Keith, who has been spending the summer attending the State Normal at Cape Girardeau, has returned to her home here.

Prof. C. W. Hughes, who attended the summer term at the State University, spent a few days recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hughes.

Mrs. E. O. Presnell returned last Sunday from a few days' visit with her daughters, Mrs. W. L. Tomlinson and Mrs. J. E. Jenkins, of Charleston.

E. O. Presnell and daughter, Cressie, attended the funeral at Flat River last Sunday of the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. Jennie Presnell.

Rev. L. S. Harrington of Fredericktown will preach at the Christian Church next Sunday.

H. B. Presnell and family spent several days recently visiting friends at Bismarck, Elvins, Leadwood and Flat River.

Ed Simpson returned last week from a visit of a few days with the family of Perry McCarver of near East Prairie.

DOE RUN

Little Frankie Jerrold is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Adam Keeling, this week.

Miss Mabel Snodell returned home from Flat River Tuesday.

Harry Rosenstengel purchased a nice car last week.

Uncle Sam Brim is reported better this week.

Fred Keeling visited his sisters, Mrs. John Brannon and Mrs. Walter Jerrold, at Farmington Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Carver of East St. Louis is visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Thomure, this week.

John Rosenstengel, Jr., of DeSoto visited his mother here Sunday.

Ervin McCutcheon has returned home.

Mrs. Joseph Brim and daughter, Minnie, are visiting Uncle Sam Brim this week.

Uncle Jim Hulsey was buried here Tuesday.

Mrs. Winford Boughe (nee Boswell) died at Morehouse and was brought here and laid at rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery Tuesday. She leaves a husband, three little children, besides a host of other relatives.

Little Mary Elizabeth Punch entertained all the little folks of all the Sunday schools Thursday, it being her 4th birthday.

MONEY TO LOAN

$3,000 to loan on long time on real estate, farm property preferred. Apply to

J. C. SEGER, President, Quick Payment Old Line Life Ins. Co., Bonne Terre, Mo.

World's Best Silo TUNG-LOK

Simplest, Strongest and Best.
Easy to Erect.
No Experts Needed.
No Hoops.
No Bands.
No Guy Wires.
Manufactured from Yellow Pine or Fir Lumber.

Tetley-Klein Lumber Company